Building Collaborative Relationships

This Friday, October 2, at 1pm EDT, the Community Mobilization Team will host a call with Marshall Howard, the nationally acclaimed author of "Let's Have Lunch Together," a bestselling book on building collaborative relationships for continuous growth and sustainability. He will be helping our community marriage initiative teams understand how to grow effective relationships that will support their efforts to strengthen marriage and family.

If you would like to join in, please send an email to andrea@marriagecomission.com to receive the conference call information.

How Healthy is Marriage?

First-Ever "Index of Leading Marriage Indicators"

A dozen of our nation's top family scholars have come together to launch a U.S. Marriage Index, the first attempt in America to track, with a simple, easy-to-understand measure, the health of marriage as an institution. These scholars call on America to pay just as much attention to the health of marriage as they pay to the health of the economy.

Take a look at this fascinating research from our friends at the Institute for American Values! Marriage Index
